Bill Faris is one of the most sought after speakers on topics related to workers' compensation managed care and cost containment. He's been a leader in the field for thirty years, establishing and running companies in medical and workers' compensation third party administration, general and specialty preferred provider organizations, and workers' compensation managed care organizations.

As President and CEO of Occupational Managed Care Alliance, Inc. in Louisville, Kentucky, Bill has delivered a variety of innovative workers' compensation cost containment solutions to thousands of employers in 46 states across the country.

Bill designed the first Kentucky-approved Managed Care Organization for workers' compensation. He has delivered more than 200 educational programs on workers' compensation for employers throughout the Commonwealth and has designed and teaches several Continuing Education programs for Agents certified by the Kentucky Department of Insurance.

A graduate of the University of Louisville School of Law, Bill is a member of the labor/employment law and workers' compensation sections of the Louisville, Kentucky and American Bar Associations.

Bill has spoken extensively to healthcare professionals, the insurance industry, employer groups, and governmental organizations throughout the country. When he steps to the podium, he brings with him not only three decades of experience and hands-on expertise, but also a remarkable ability to entertain, stimulate and educate, with a lively sense of humor and an undiminished enthusiasm for the challenges and opportunities ahead.

Bill and his family are active members of St. Paul United Methodist Church, where Bill has chaired the Administrative Board, Stewardship Committee, and the Council on Ministries. In addition, Bill has assumed leadership or Board positions for The Cabbage Patch Settlement House, Inc., Trinity Towers Retirement Community Board, Free Clothing Enterprise, Inc. and Wesley Manor Retirement Community.

His professional associations and leadership contributions have included the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Education Association, Kentucky State Workers' Compensation Advisory Committee for Managed Care, Southern Association of Workers' Compensation Administrators and RIMS.
